If you are applying for retirement benefits:

- It is important to note that your pension may be impacted if you elect to return to work in a covered position. To understand the impact of returning to work, please reach out to your local union office.
- If you are married at the time you retire, you are required by law to elect a joint & survivor pension. If your spouse is waiving their entitlement to a survivor pension, a Provincial Spousal Waiver form and a Certificate of Independent Legal Advice on Waiver of Joint and Survivor Pension form must be filed with Manion before we can process an election for any other form of pension benefit. We will send you these forms, with your Retirement Benefit Statement.

If you are applying for termination benefits:

- It is important to understand the impact a termination benefit may have on your continued membership in the union, and any other benefits you are entitled to as a member of the union. To understand the impact of electing to receive a termination benefit, please reach out to your local union office.

Once we receive your completed application, and your local union has provided us information about your union history, we will process your application within 30 days of receipt of all information. Any missing, incomplete, or unsubmitted information required to process your application may result in additional delays.
